JIMS CORNER

Sportsman: a person who exhibits qualities highly regarded in a sport, such as fairness, generosity, observance of the rules and one who is courteous to others. We are all sportsmen, therefore we should show as much courtesy to each other as we would like shown to us. When on the range, if someone wishes to check or change his target, then stop shooting, it's not only the right thing to do, it is a rule of the range, any range. Our range is there for all members, it is not the personal property of any one member. Just because you may have gotten there first does not mean you can set the standard for all others, remember, we are all Sportsmen

We regret to inform you of the passing of Oliver Perry

Only two meetings left for 2009—November 9 & December 14
